

How Candidates and Recruiters Benefit

How Do Candidates and Recruiters Benefit from Using a Professional Relocation Service like PROFILE Referral Systems?

Recruiters: Free up your time.

When you partner with PROFILE Referral Systems, we focus on your candidate's relocation...so that you can focus on the tasks that make you money.

Don't go it alone. Recruiters make money by prospecting, selling, and negotiating. Anything else just takes money out of your pocket. Partner with PROFILE Referral Systems and leave time-consuming candidate relocation and all the details of the move to us.

Make the move stress-free. Selling a home, packing up, and moving can be complicated and emotional. PROFILE Referral Systems sweats the smallest details of relocation so that you don't have to.

Candidates:

If you're selling a home – you'll need to know the best appraisers and real estate agents for your area: not to mention the best moving companies! We can connect you with relocation professionals that meet your very unique needs.

If you're buying a home – you'll need to connect with a real estate agent who is most familiar with your new community, as well as your hobbies, special needs, and other important factors. Often, your spouse may need assistance with a job search. You may also have concerns about elder or child care...or finding the best new school. Let PROFILE Referral Systems match you with the resources you need as you transfer to a new community.

The numbers are important. We can provide you with an up-to-date cost of living analysis, expense processing, and help you track other important financial aspects of relocation.

Your family is important. If your family isn't happy, then you won't be, either. That's why PROFILE Referral Systems actively encourages family involvement in the relocation decision and process. Why wait? Call us today! Toll free: (800) REFER88 or (800) 733-3788.
